James Island PSD Fire Department Donates
Fire Truck to Pink Heels
Guardians of the Ribbon Southeast
Georgia Chapter

The James Island Public Service District's Fire Department donated a 1987 fire truck to Pink Heels Guardians of the Ribbon. Guardians of the Ribbon consists of a group of firefighters, police officers and community leaders devoted to leading cancer awareness and inspiring men to support the women of their community. Originated by firefighter Dave Graybill of Phoenix, Arizona, Guardians of the Ribbon drives pink fire trucks across the U.S. in support of women fighting against cancer.

A dedication ceremony, blessed by Reverend Arthur Jenkins and led by Senior Commissioner Eugene Platt, was held on July 13, 2011, at the District's main office.
