Goals and key issues as Commissioner:

My goals as a James Island Public Service Commissioner have always been the same. To make sure that the citizens of James Island continue to have the same great service they have grown accustomed to on this island. Also to insure that the employees of the James Island Public Service District have fair and equal employment in their job descriptions and salaries.

Employment:

Part time receptionist at Kernodle & Coleman

Full time : mother, property manager

Education:

Greenfield High School, Greenfield Tennessee

Jackson State Community College, Jackson Tennessee

Civic Involvement:

I have been involved with the Charleston County School System as a substitute teacher when my children were school age. I also served on the James Island Constituent School Board. I decided to be involved with the schools early on as a member and officer of the PTA at Stiles Point Elementary and Fort Johnson Middle School. I have worked with the schools on James Island in a voluntary capacity and feel it is important to do so because these students are our future.
